

Launching the opening day of Toronto's Secular Jewish Community School with Winnipeg's

THE KLEZMER KIDS!

Interactive
Family Workshop -
Klezmer Music & Folk Dancing

Led by Daniel Koulack and
The Klezmer Kids

&
Eastern European Folk Dancing with
Helen Winkler

Prospective
Families
Welcome!

Sunday September 13, 2009

11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

The Winchevsky Centre, 585 Cranbrooke Avenue (Bathurst & Lawrence area)

‡10.00 at door. Reduced rates for TSJCS families.

To learn more about our creative, secular Sunday school programming, visit www.tsjcs.com or call 416-789-5502.

Toronto's Secular Jewish Community School, a division of the Morris Winchevsky School, is committed to fostering Jewish heritage and identity within a secular and humanistic context and is comprised of:

- Kinder Kapers - an interactive program for toddlers and their grownups
- Morris Winchevsky School - a modular approach for SK-Grade 5 students
- Secular B'nai Mitzvah Program - a unique two-year experience (Grades 6 & 7)

The Klezmer Kids' Toronto appearances are made possible by the generous support of: Ashkenaz Foundation, Label Basman Memorial Scholarship Fund; Sholem Aleichem Community-Winnipeg; Morris Winchevsky School funds: Shek Family Living Legacy, Lee & Hy Schechter Education Fund, Hayashi Trust Fund; United Jewish People's Order-Canada; United Jewish People's Order-Winnipeg.